

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington D.C. 20505

Executive Secretary

3 February 1979

Dear Jim,

I understand you departed yesterday for the Resource Management Staff, having completed your tour in the Executive Secretariat.

Certainly the time spent as Deputy Executive Secretary offered a unique insight into "who does what to whom and with what expected effect" within the Agency and the Intelligence Community at large. Tracking these actions is not an easy task, but, as principal officer within the Secretariat for doing so, you assisted us all in getting our work done.

Thanks for a job well done, and good luck in helping [redacted] manage our resources. I'm sure you're equal to the challenge.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
